Annual Thanksgiving Service

and Ushering 2010!

Welcome
New Members

Let us make a special effort not only to get to know our 42 new members, but also help them find a place of worship and service at PP.

Tomorrow, SIBI Day classes (starts with 9:30am with chapel) begins for mission interns, full time students and members

On Wednesday, Open Bible Study begins at 10am on the book of Ecclesiastes.

At 7:30pm, SPC resumes with a new series on "Fisher of Men" by brother Charles Cook, covering a variety of topics related to church growth, personal evangelism and missions.

On Friday, the first 2010 weekend SIBI series begins at 7pm to 9:45pm on the Gospel of Mark by brother Tony Yeung. Everyone is invited to sign up for this series - please refer to the back page for more details.

On Sunday 10th January, our 9:30am Bible classes will begin a new series on "Finishing Well".

PP FAMILY NEWS

Right: We praise God that long-time visitors, brother Leng Fong and his wife, sister Shu Ern have committed their lives to the Lord last Sunday. Brother Kian Hwee invited them to church and both elders Adrian and Beng Chuan have been instrumental in teaching them the word.

We had a great Thanksgiving worship and fellowship last Sunday evening. At this time of writing, we are looking forward to a good start for 2010 with our annual planning day on 1st January 2010.

Brother Charles Cook will speak on "Knowing, Doing and Becoming" at our morning worships. At 6pm our minister, brother Henry Kong will point the way to 'a fresh, bright new year' for all of us.

Welcome New Members: At 9:30am, our elders and their wives will be introducing 42 new members to the church. Each will receive a token of appreciation and given the opportunity to say a few words. After this brief session, you will have the opportunity to welcome all of them at the fellowship following. Many thanks to sister Florence for supplying the abundant refreshments.

Calling all China Tentmakers: There will be an important PPCIG meeting at 1pm at our minister's office. Members who are interested in China missions should attend. Our minister will present the "All Inclusive Policy" for China and provide a comprehensive outline of our China missions with clear directions for future work. Members who have ordered a packaged lunch can get them from brother Patrick Ong.

SIBI will resume with day classes from tomorrow and weekend courses this Friday. Check out the front and back pages for more information.

Join us this Wednesday at 10am for SIBI's Open Bible Study new series on the book of Ecclesiastes by brother Charles Cook.

The first SPC series of the year, "Fishers of Men" starts this Wednesday at 7:30pm by brother Charles Cook.

The church staff is now putting the finishing touches on PP's 2010 Pictorial Directory. It will be released on the 17th January to members who have been active for the past 12 months. Each member is entitled to a copy; additional copies may be ordered at $10 each.

Many thanks to our Junior Bible class teachers who served devotedly in 2009. Also to a great team of youth and adult teachers. These unsung heroes are the mainstay of PP.

Last week, our youth enjoyed their largest and best organised camp to date. No expenses were spared to provide almost 100 youth a team building programme second to none.
