

More about Kakinada

KAKINADA (formerly known as COCANADA)

Kakinada is a city and a municipal corporation in East Godavari district in the Indian state of Andhra Pradesh. It is also the headquarters of East Godavari district.

The city has a population of about 696,329 as per 2007 census. This coastal city is witnessing rapid growth thanks to the recently granted Special Economic Zone status. The city also has a deep-water port which is expanding rapidly.

People from Kakinada can easily be identified by their characteristic Godavari Telugu accent. They have gained a reputation for being hospitable, polite and cultured in their interaction with people. The city of Kakinada is a major educational center with several schools, colleges and Universities. A large part of the younger generation are migrating to the cities and out of the country in search of opportunities that meet their scale of ambition. However, there are significant parts of the society that ride the boom by expanding their businesses and investments. The local population is supplemented by immigrants who leave their villages to seek work and opportunity in this bustling city.

Food - East Godavari is famous for traditional Andhra cuisine and Kakinada is no different - mouth watering pickles (Aavakaaya) made from mango, vegetables (e.g. Cauliflower Aavakaaya), chicken, shrimp, mutton and even fish.

NAMES of GOD

El Roi – The God Who Sees

There are no circumstances in our lives that escape His fatherly awareness and care. God knows us and our troubles.

El Roi sees our past misery, our present pain, our uncertain future. He is so watchful that He knows when the smallest sparrow perishes and He is the God who sees and cares for us today.

Where can I go from your Spirit?

Where can I flee from your presence?

If I go up to the heavens, you are there;

if I make my bed in the depths, you are there.

If I rise on the wings of the dawn,

if I settle on the far side of the sea,

even there your hand will guide me,

Your right hand will hold me fast.

Psalm 139:7 -12

This truth is both comforting and sobering. Comforting because God stands ready to deliver us when we are in trouble .

¹⁸ But the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, on those whose hope is in his unfailing love,

¹⁹ to deliver them from death and keep them alive in famine.

Psalms 33:18-19

On the other hand, it is sobering because God is watching us 24/7.

"the eyes of the Lord are in every place, keeping watch on the evil and the good" Proverbs 15:3

There is a phrase "You can run, but you cannot hide." We cannot hide from God because He is everywhere.

When Adam and Eve sinned against God, God never left mankind. God has already set in place a plan to send His son to die for their sins. The next time you are tempted or in trouble, remember that God is watching and listening.

Keep your eyes on the Lord;
He never takes His eyes off you.
